A categorical approach to commutators of inverse semigroups

Ülo Reimaa
University of Tartu (Estonia)

Abstract

The commutator theory of groups can generalized pointed categories using cosmash products. We will generalize co-smash products to non-pointed categories, and justify the generalization by observing that in the category of inverse semigroups, it induces a reasonable notion of commutator.